

HISTORIC BRASS SOCIETY

Early Brass Festival 2022

at the
Vintage Band Festival
July 29-31, 2022 in Northfield, MN

Stan Curtis, President, HBS and Paul Niemisto, Artistic Director, VBF
Ronald Rodman, Carleton College Host and Site Manager

EBF sessions will be in the Applebaum Recital Hall at the Weitz Center for Creativity,
Carleton College, Union Street, Northfield

Tentative EBF schedule

- Friday 9:30-12:30 19th and early 20th Century Bands and ensembles
4-6 pm Informal playing sessions
- Saturday 9:00 Monk Award presentation
9:15-11:45 Natural and keyed trumpets through the early 19th Century
7 pm Pizza Party/Social Event
- Sunday 9:30-12:30 Brass in the mid-19th Century and beyond

Please see the HBS website www.historicbrass.org for the full schedule, presentation details, local housing options, and other information

Registration (Free for this Symposium): Please complete the form online at https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdZNLX8CWsvZ2fQ8pIeF7MnXOk0UDQKUKK9B6csRSRQqWDF_Q/viewform

or email the information below by July 15 to: scoffin@historicbrass.org

Name _____

Phone: _____

Email _____

Address _____

I would like to participate in the Informal Playing sessions, Friday at 4pm.

Natural Trumpet Other early instrument _____

I would like to attend the Saturday evening Pizza Party (cash donation $10 at the door)

Membership includes the annual Historic Brass Society Journal, biannual Historic Brass Today, notices of additional conferences, discounts from vendors, and much more. Join today: membership@historicbrass.org